

Mayor, Duivenvoorden corrected Councillor, Guitard's accusations as not being accurate. At no time has he ever offered to sell property to the Village of Belledune. The 2009 discussion included the use of land for buffer, which would not require the Village of Belledune to buy and in the previous project where he sat as Deputy Mayor, (2001-2002), the Village of Belledune did an appraisal on a piece of property he owned. That was where it ended. Mayor Duivenvorden clarified he has never or would never consider selling property to the Village of Belledune while sitting as Mayor or as any other position on Council.
